On behalf of everyone at the Performing Arts & Event Center (PAEC) I am delighted to announce our inaugural 2017-2018 Season! It is a season we are extremely proud of, an eclectic mix of performances which represent the highest level of artistic excellence. This first season is a broad range of experiences—from the opening night featuring RAIN® - A Tribute to the Beatles, to the incredible musicianship of The TEN Tenors, and female soloists Storm Large and Rosanne Cash, as well as Grammy® award winning saxophonist Branford Marsalis.

We also welcome our Resident Arts Organizations from Federal Way, our Symphony, Harmony Kings, Federal Way Chorale, Jet Cities, the Youth Symphony and Tacoma City Ballet for the first time to their new home.

Join us all year long for live music, dazzling dance, dynamic theatre, spoken word and evenings of laughter and unforgettable memories. Ambiguous Dance Company was founded by choreographer Kim Bo-ram and dancer Jang Kyeong-min in 2008. The name describes the "undefinable and ambiguous" characteristics in terms of style, aesthetics, genres, and preconceptions. Hearing Loop

The PAEC is proud to say that we are “looped!” Individuals with hearing loss may request a headset at the Box Office to which a wireless signal is transmitted from the theatre sound system. This signal can also be transmitted to the T-coil in an cochlear implant or hearing aid. This system allows you to hear sound picked up by the facility’s sound system, rather than from the microphone in an implant, hearing aid, or assistive device, resulting in a clearer sound with less background noise.
